OFFICE ORDER

It has come to the notice of the undersigned that some departmental vehicles allotted to officers are used/driven by non officials for their personal errands which are outside the sphere of official works. Driver allotted to the officer should only be engaged to drive the departmental allotted vehicle. Exception may be made if the allottee is present in the vehicle.

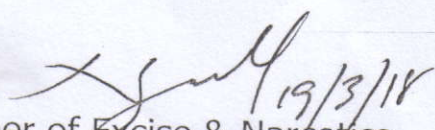

Such mis-use of Govt. vehicle for private purposes should be stopped forthwith and all vehicle allottees are hereby informed to ensure strict compliance of the above instructions.

Violation of this office order shall be viewed seriously and allotment of vehicle shall be discontinued if found so and disciplinary action shall be initiated against the defaulting officer.
